Sunday Christ the King	Today we bring to a close the Church's year and we celebrate the Universal Kingship of Jesus Christ. We remind ourselves that in a world that can often seem uncertain, Jesus has won the victory over sin through the Cross and we have promise of his glory before us. We pray today for all those situations in our world where this message most urgently needs to be heard today.		Elizabeth Grove Philip Grove Harlow Grove Grange Close Lambley

Father God we thank you for continuing to walk with us at this challenging time. We appreciate your presence now more than ever. Please continue to grant us your Grace and courage to move through these dark and uncharted waters spreading your words of Love, Peace and Comfort. You are our saviour and redeemer with the Power to heal and protect us. Please continue to shield us with the power of your love. We also give thanks for the News of the development of a new vaccine to potentially protect us all from COVID 19.

We give thanks for all the front-line staff and care workers around the world who are potentially put their own lives at risk to care for others. Please surround them with your love and healing power.

Lord in your mercy...Hear our prayer

Father, we pray for Christians and Churches throughout the world, particularly those who are persecuted for their faith. Please surround them with your strong arms of protection. We also give thanks for all the hard work of the ministers and Lay Ministers here at All Hallows.

Lord in your mercy... Hear our prayer

We pray for all who are struggling at this time. We remember before you, the troubled in mind and the distressed in spirit. Father we pray for those who are sick. May they feel your love and healing power.

Lord in your mercy...Hear our prayer

We pray for those who are bereaved, please comfort and strengthen them with your Grace, power and healing love. Please give them hope in times of darkness. We particularly give thanks for the life of Dr Krishnan Subramanian, the Consultant Anaesthetist at the Royal Derby Hospital, who has recently lost his life to COVID 19. We remember his family at this difficult time.

Lord in your mercy... Hear our prayer

Lord God as we approach the season of Advent, please scatter the darkness from about us and within us and help us to walk as children of the light. Help us to know that you love us and are with us always.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen

READINGS

Ezekiel 34: 11-16, 20-24

For thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice. Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Matthew 25: 31-46

'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, "Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me." Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?" And the king will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." Then he will say to those at his left hand, "You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me." Then they also will answer, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?" Then he will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me." And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.'
