TODAY WE CELEBRATE OUR PATRONAL FESTIVAL

In recognition of this, you are invited to make a Birthday Gift to All Hallows.

If you are coming into church, you can use one of the special envelopes or leave an ordinary envelope in the wall safe at the bottom of the church steps. If you are able to gift aid, please indicate this on the envelope. We can now offer alternative ways of giving – there is the online donation button on the front page of the website, and we have a card reader in church.

Many thanks every donation is precious and will be used for the ongoing life and work of All Hallows Church.

Bags of Blessings

Once again we have a box by the Font for donations to this cause. Please donate a small gift, such as sweets, a book, craft supplies a small toy etc. These will be collected and placed into gift bags for underprivileged children (aged 0-16) and distributed via food banks and other local organisations.

All Hallows Annual Christmas Meal Sunday December 8th 12.30 for 1pm

Details are now available by the porch door. Please sign up if you wish to join this. Payment to be made to Keith Hollingworth or Tony Harrison.

Deuteronomy 6-1-9

Now this is the commandment—the statutes and the ordinances—that the Lord your God charged me to teach you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy, so that you and your children and your children’s children may fear the Lord your God all the days of your life, and keep all his decrees and his commandments that I am commanding you, so that your days may be long. Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you, and so that you may multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the Lord, the God of your ancestors, has promised you.

Hear, O Israel: The Lord is our God, the Lord alone. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise. Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead, and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Mark 12.28-34

One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, ‘Which commandment is the first of all?’ Jesus answered, ‘The first is, “Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.” The second is this, “You shall love your neighbour as yourself.” There is no other commandment greater than these.’ Then the scribe said to him, ‘You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that “he is one, and besides him there is no other”; and “to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength”, and “to love one’s neighbour as oneself”,—this is much more important than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.’ When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, ‘You are not far from the kingdom of God.’ After that no one dared to ask him any question.
