Readings for the Second Sunday of Easter

Acts 3.12-17

When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers.

Luke 24. 36-48

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

Intercessions from Orla Mills

Father, we pray for Churches throughout the world and for our All Hallows Ministers, Lay Ministers and Church Wardens who have shown such adaptability during the Covid-19 pandemic. Their unwavering commitment to ensuring that worship is accessible to all members of our congregation has kept us connected spiritually at times when we could not be together in person. We give thanks that those who lead us in worship heard you calling them so clearly to their own vocations. Lord in your mercy- hear our prayer Father, we pray for our wonderful world and we ask you to show us the role we can play in filling it with the love, acceptance and humanity that Jesus showed. Give us the strength and compassion to do all that we can to feed and care for others spiritually, physically and emotionally.

Lord in your mercy- hear our prayer.

Father, we give thanks to all those who are tirelessly offering pastoral support to others in their hour of need. We give thanks especially for the Befriending Scheme featured in our Pew Leaflet and we recognise the vital role it plays in supporting our local community. May all those giving pastoral love and care have their faith and resilience strengthened by the spirit of the living God.

Lord in your mercy- hear our prayer

Father we think of those who suffer in mind or body and for those without faith, hope or love. We pray for the sick and remember those in particular who are listed on today's pew leaflet as well those known to us personally. Help them to sense your love in their time of need.

Lord in your mercy- hear our prayer.

Father, we pray for the departed who are now in your everlasting care. May they be forever surrounded by love and peace in your kingdom. We pray for those who mourn them. May they find peace and comfort at such a difficult time and be strengthened by your presence.

Lord in your mercy- hear our prayer.

Merciful Father and Lord of all life, we praise you that we are made in your image and reflect your truth and light. We thank you for the life of His Royal Highness Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, for the love he received from you and showed among us. Above all, we rejoice at your gracious promise to all your servants, living and departed, that we shall rise again at the coming of Christ. And we ask that in due time we may share with your servant Philip that clearer vision promised to us in the same Christ our Lord; who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Merciful Father: Accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ, Amen
