Collect for Today

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ have overcome death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: grant that, as by your grace going before us you put into our minds good desires, so by your continual help we may bring them to good effect, through Jesus Christ our Risen Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Prayer after Communion

Eternal God, whose son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life: grant us to walk in his way, to rejoice in his truth, and to share his risen life; who is alive and reigns,
now and for ever.

Amen

Please join us for light refreshments following our 9.30 am service

Readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter.

Acts 11, 1-18;

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, 'Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?' Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, 'I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me. As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. I also heard a voice saying to me, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat." But I replied, "By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth." But a second time the voice answered from heaven, "What God has made clean, you must not call profane." This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven. At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were. The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, "Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved." And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, "John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?' When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, 'Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life.'

John 13,31-35

When he had gone out, Jesus said, 'Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, "Where I am going, you cannot come." I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.'

Intercessions from Keith Hollingworth.

Lord we raise up to you your whole Church, and especially All Hallows Church, Gedling, as we approach this impending process and time of an interregnum. Give grace to our leaders to protect and guide the congregation of this Church, spiritually and physically. Give us the discipline to support them in all their undertakings. We give thanks for the teachings and spiritual guidance of our retiring incumbent Mic, and pray that he will be rewarded with what he seeks.

Lord, hear us..... Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray that the body of faith will save the world. In its ministry of reconciliation, the Church encounters much that is seemingly irreconcilable. In its witness to your love and forgiveness, the Church finds much that provokes anger and is unforgivable. Fill your Church and disciples with the patience and forbearance to show the true Christian ethos in all things and to all people.

Lord, hear us..... Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for a world adrift in the chaos of its own making. For nations who provoke your anger. For leaders who mock you and all human rights. For nations that have lost sight of their true allegiance in seeking a lust for power and influence. Lord raise up leaders of statesmanship, self-effacing governments who seek the welfare of their people, not their own agenda, and that we will be reminded of the love and compassion that is at the heart of your judgement.

Lord, hear us..... Lord, graciously hear us.

We offer up to you our community, and the families and individuals, whom our personal influence and aspirations are directly felt. We have an opportunity to demonstrate your saving power. To be Christlike in our relationships, to denounce cruelty and injustice, and to promote the spirit of dedication and reconciliation

Lord, hear us..... Lord, graciously hear us.

Lord, we pray for those in need, for those who are perhaps the closest to the true focus of Christs ministry. Teach us Lord, that by caring for the sick and the poor, by demonstrating concern and compassion for the lonely and the hungry, we are at the same time showing our love for our allegiance to the Christ whom we serve.

Lord, hear us..... Lord, graciously hear us.

We remember those who have died, those who have gone to the Father and are at rest in his kingdom. Today we think especially of the family and friends of Mary Rigby. For them the saving power of Christ has been proved, the risen Christ has drawn them up into his embrace of love. May there be a place for us besides them.

Lord, hear us..... Lord, graciously hear us.

In this very special year, we pray for our Sovereign Queen Elizabeth, the head of our Church and Nation, as we look forward with Christian teachings to celebrate Her Majesty's marvellous seventy years as a ruler of the tremendous nation. Grant unto her whole Council, and all that are put in authority under her, that ability to truly and impartially minister justice, and maintain a true Christian religion in her Governance.

Merciful Father Accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen
