Readings for the Sixth Sunday of Easter

Acts 16.9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, 'Come over to Macedonia and help us.' When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshipper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, 'If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home.' And she prevailed upon us.

John 5.1-9

After this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids—blind, lame, and paralysed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, 'Do you want to be made well?' The sick man answered him, 'Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me.' Jesus said to him, 'Stand up, take your mat and walk.' At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk.

Now that day was a sabbath.

Intercessions from Margaret Hicking.

Father God we thank you for the beauty of the Spring. For the beautiful flowers and trees and the food that is produced. We think of farmers and factory workers, for shops and supermarkets and we ask for a fairer sharing of these assets.

Lord hear us Lord graciously hear us

We give thanks for the water supplies and we think of those parts of the world that are affected by drought, due to global warming. Help us to look after your world.

Lord hear us Lord graciously hear us

We think of how water is used in so many ways. Especially in our health service. For cleaning and sterilising, for dialysis and producing medication and oxygen. We give thanks for your goodness

Lord hear us Lord graciously hear us

We think of those who are ill at this time. Remembering Kate Lincoln, Revd. Mic Johnson, and those known only to us. Give them your strength and healing Lord.

Lord hear us Lord graciously hear us

We pray for friends and relatives of those who have gone before us.

We ask that you be with them and their families.

Lord hear us Lord graciously hear us

Giving thanks for all your goodness we pray,

Merciful father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear,
that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen
