Nehemiah 8: 1-3,5-6.8-10

All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.

And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, 'Amen, Amen', lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading. And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, 'This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep.' For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our LORD; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.'

Luke 4: 14-21

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.'

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'

Intercessions from Graham Francis.

Father God,

As we prepare to take communion in remembrance of Your Son, our saviour, Jesus Christ, we pray for our leaders and churchwardens and all those who dedicate themselves to the running of this church and safeguarding its future. We pray also for all the other churches in the Diocese of Southwell and across the entire Anglican church. We call on You to imbue our leaders us with wisdom, perseverance and faith.

Lord, in your Mercy: Hear our prayer.

We reflect on how the last two years of our lives have been so impacted by the pandemic. We think of those that have lost our lives or loved ones, or their health, or suffered in other ways. We pray for the elderly in care homes who have been isolated for so long. We long for a steady road to recovery that will see us return to normal life once again. We ask You to bless us all with patience and hope.

Lord, in your Mercy: Hear our prayer.

As we begin the last week of January, we are reminded that we are in the coldest month of the year, and we pray for those who are most vulnerable: the homeless, the poor, and the elderly. We ask that you embrace them with and with your love and fill them with warmth.

Lord, in your Mercy: Hear our prayer

Let us pray for those in our community who are sick in body, mind or spirit. May You protect and heal them. In particular, we pray for Kate Lincoln, Ray Gray Rev Mic Johnson and Margaret Tattersfield. Lord, in your Mercy: Hear our prayer

We pray also for those who have recently passed, may they rest in peace and rise in glory, forever in your presence. We pray for John Henshaw.

Lord, in your Mercy: Hear our prayer.

Dear Lord, accept these prayers for the sake of your son, our saviour, Jesus Christ.
