our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now
and for ever. Amen

God of glory, you nourish

1 Corinthians 2.1-11

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, 'What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him'— these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God.

John 2.1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Intercessions from Cath Crane.

Father God, as we prepare to celebrate Christingle, you have called us out of darkness into your wonderful light. In that light, please help us to find our way. Father of light, please shine on us and make us perfect mirrors to show your light in a darkened world. Please inspire us with your love to spread the Gospels and demonstrate your love in the wider community, particularly reaching people who feel isolated, excluded and who may be living in poverty. Help us to remember, pray for, and seek to help people around the world who may not have access to clean water, food or COVID vaccinations.

Lord in your mercy...Hear our prayer.

Father God, we thank you for walking with us through these difficult times. We give thanks for the recently developed COVID vaccine and Booster and the effect they are having in preventing the further development and spread of the virus, both here, and potentially around the world.

Lord in your mercy...Hear our prayer.

Father we give thanks for all the hard work that the Priests and lay readers of All Hallows have done to keep the Church alive during these difficult times. Please continue to surround them with your inspirational grace and love.

Lord in your mercy...Hear our prayer.

We pray for Christians and Churches throughout the world, particularly those who are persecuted for their faith. Please surround them with your strong arms of protection.

Lord in your mercy...Hear our prayer.

Father God, we pray for our country. We ask that you will give wisdom and insight to the Government and to local leaders, as they try to balance keeping the pandemic under control with releasing the lock down.

Lord in your mercy...Hear our prayer.

Father we pray for all who are struggling at this time. We remember before you the troubled in mind and the distressed in Spirit.

We pray for the sick. We remember Kate Lincoln, Ray Gray, Revd Mic Johnson and Margaret Tattersfield, Father may they feel your love and healing power.

We remember the departed and pray for those who are bereaved. Please comfort and strengthen them with your grace, power, and healing love. Please give them hope in times of darkness. We remember the family of John Henshaw recently departed.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.
