Fourth Sunday after Trinity

Sing to the Lord a New Song

Over the last few months many of us have been joining together on a Sunday at 5 o'clock to sing and share worship via the internet, on Facebook or YouTube.

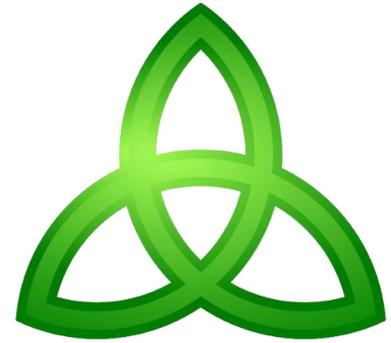

I've received so many emails, texts, and messages about how much people are enjoying it and also what people are doing whilst participating. Some prepare Sunday dinner, some knit, sing and dance in gay abandon (not all at once!) and everything in between.

I love this idea that worship is not just something we do in awe and wonder but something we do as part of everyday life. Worship as a word means 'to give worth' to something. How much more worth can we give to something than praising God while we do it?

So, whatever you do during Five Live, or any other worship know it is blessed because when we offer worship, what we're doing becomes worship - and that includes making Sunday dinner.

Collect for Today

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you our ruler and guide we may pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Intercessions

Heavenly Father, we come into your presence today, joining with the worship in heaven as we bring our requests to you. We praise you because you always hear our prayers, you are faithful to all your promises and loving to all you have made.

We pray for our world at this time, especially for all those working to care for people with coronavirus and those seeking to develop a vaccine. Lord, give wisdom and understanding so that this virus can be eradicated. We pray for all those who are suffering from Covid 19, especially those in countries where medical care is not available to all. Lord have mercy, and release your healing power to them.

We pray for our country at this time. As the lockdown restrictions are eased, we ask for wisdom and understanding as we edge forward into an unknown future. Help us all to use our time and resources wisely, and help us to put into practice the lessons we have learned during this unprecedented time.

We pray for our church at this time. Thank you, Lord, for our church leaders who have had to learn many new skills to enable us to continue to worship together. And thank you for the many people who have used this time to find out more about who you are. May they continue to grow ever closer to you as they return to the busyness of 21st century life.

We pray for ourselves at this time. We ask that you will uphold any who feel isolated and alone, and lift up those who feel bowed down by sickness or the grief of bereavement. Bless those who are struggling with relationships, and help us all to remember that you are faithful to all your promises and loving towards all you have made.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Amen

Dear Friends and Fellow Pact:sing Creatives,

As lockdown begins to ease I wonder how you are feeling moving forward - eager or hesitant about the changes to come? Some things seem better now, whilst other issues begin to look really complicated - especially when lockdown reverts, as in Leicester at the moment.

Since we are aware of these changes, different thoughts are being released about the future. Personally we could have a clear vision for change; or again we might feel really confused. Whatever your thoughts, the PRact:sing Platform would appreciate your creative honesty in the expression of this transition.

We could call this section of our exhibition CO:DID 20, noting what we have learnt from our experiences and how can we shape the future differently.

UNRAVELLING THE FUTURE

Let us lift the baton of challenge and please pass on the word about PRact:sing Platform to anyone who you think has something to contribute.

Happy CREATING, and always remember that we are co-creators of a new way of life from 2020 together.
