Collect for Today

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Prayer after Communion

God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the grace of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you; look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Please join us for light refreshments following our 9.30 am service

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE HISTORIC CHURCHES TRUST RIDE & STRIDE

We will be taking part in this sponsored activity again this year. We are organising a gentle walk which may include some public transport! We will visit as many participating churches as possible – if you would like to join us and help raise some sponsor money (50% for the Trust and 50% for the Friends of All Hallows), you are welcome.

As this event is happening on the same day as our Heritage Open Day, the rota for volunteers to be in church to welcome visitors is combined. If you would like to take part please contact Eleanor Wilson for sponsor forms or more information about the walk.

Wednesday 12th September All Hallows Men's Fellowship visit to John Taylor Bell Foundry Museum, Loughborough (for members and guests). Full details on the south aisle notice board.

General Notices

PRAYER REQUEST BOARD - The Prayer Board is situated alongside the book shelf. If you know of someone you would like included in our prayers, please fill in one of the pale blue prayer cards (located on the book shelf) and pin onto the board. Unless a longer period is specified, requests will remain on the board and be entered into the Pew Leaflet for three weeks.

HOSPITAL VISITING

Do you know of someone who is a patient at QMC or The City Hospital who would appreciate a visit? John Dawn represents All Hallows Church as a ward visitor at QMC and a Eucharistic Minister at The City Hospital, and will be pleased to make a visit or arrange for a member of the hospital Chaplaincy team to do so. Please contact John on 07702 379092 with the name of anyone you feel may value a visit.

Items for the next Pew Leaflet should reach the office by 10.00 am on Thursday

Readings for Parish Communion

Psalm 51: 1 – 13

To the leader. A Psalm of David, when the prophet Nathan came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned, and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are justified in your sentence and blameless when you pass judgement. Indeed, I was born guilty, a sinner when my mother conceived me. You desire truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones that you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you.

John 6: 24 – 35

So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus. When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.' So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat." ' Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.' Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.
