Collect for Today

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

God of all mercy, in this Eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring about that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please join us for light refreshments following our 9.30 am service

General Notices

JUNIOR CHURCH We are experiencing a lengthy period of work in the Memorial Hall. We are unable to get access to the main hall until the work is finished. This is predicted to be on Friday 20th September so the first Junior Church will now be on SUNDAY 29th SEPTEMBER as Harvest All Age Worship is on the 22nd September. In the meantime you are of course welcome to attend the main church services either with little ones or by yourself. Sorry for any inconvenience caused by this.

CHARITY ABSEIL My daughter, Lindsey Parr will be abseiling down the Queens Medical Centre building on Saturday 21st September to raise money for the Cystic Fibrosis Unit at the City Hospital Campus where she is a Senior Staff Nurse. Donations can be made on line to: 'justgiving.com/fundraising/linsparr' or have a word with me in church. Many thanks Linda Rigby

Readings for Parish Communion

Jeremiah 18: 1 – 11

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 'Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words.' So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him.

Then the word of the LORD came to me: Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the LORD. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it. And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it. Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the LORD: Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.

Luke 14: 25 – 33

Now large crowds were travelling with him; and he turned and said to them, 'Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, "This fellow began to build and was not able to finish." Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.'
