Collect for Today

O God, forasmuch as without you we are not able to please you; mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Prayer after Communion

Holy and Blessed God, you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son and filled us with your Holy Spirit: may we honour you, not only with our lips but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus our Lord. Amen

Intercessions

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, you promised through your son Jesus Christ to hear us when we pray in faith.

Let us pray for the Church and let us share in God's love.

We pray for our Rector Mic and priests Keith and Jean, our readers and that they receive God's guidance to continue giving us leadership in order that we may have the strength and courage to follow and live according to His way.

We thank God and are grateful for all the good things that we have and for everything that our Lord bestows upon us and:

For the beauty of the earth
For the beauty of the skies
For the love that from our birth
Over and around us lies

We pray for our country and that we all live together in harmony and peace and that everyone will have the grace to build bonds of trust and that we may work for the dignity and flourishing of all.

Let us also pray that people throughout the world may live their everyday lives in a normal way free of the fear of violence and atrocities and that Christians are able to worship anywhere in the world without fear of persecution and prosecution.

Let us pray for all those working and studying in education and that the Covid restrictions do not have a detrimental effect on the future education and career prospects of the students and let us also pray for young people who are neither working or training and becoming involved in unacceptable ways of life.

Let us pray for forgiveness in the way that we have fallen short in our way of living that God expects of us:

The desires of people and nations to possess what is not their own
The greed in which we exploit and lay waste our planet
Our indifference to the plight of the homeless and refugees
The lust which dishonours the bodies of men, women and children
The pride which leads us to trust in ourselves and not in God

We pray for the sick and suffering especially those members of our church or family and give thanks to the doctors, nurses, medical staff and all those who look after them. Let us pray that a solution will be found that will cure the pandemic of Covid 19.

We commemorate the departed and especially those former members of our church.

Lord hear us as we remember those who have died in the faith of Christ and we pray for their everlasting joy in your eternal kingdom.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Amen

NOTICES

It is now hoped that All Hallows will be open every Sunday at 9.30 am for a Holy Communion Service.

Seats are limited to 40 and you MUST book a place.

Places can be booked either by:

E-mailing church on a Wednesday or phoning on a Thursday morning between 10.00 am and 12.00 noon.

Unfortunately, you will not be able to attend a service if you have not booked. Thank you for your co-operation.

Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal

16th October sees the launch of the 2020 Poppy Appeal. "Every year during The Poppy Appeal our fantastic volunteers distribute over 40 million poppies, last year raising over £45 million to help our vital work in supporting the Armed Forces community. However, this year, as a result of COVID-19, many of our volunteers are understandably unable to assist, and reduced footfall in highstreets and train stations means our Poppy Appeal income is at real risk. But we certainly cannot afford to do without this income. A countrywide effort is necessary – and we need you to be a part of it. This year, more than ever before, every poppy counts.

Thank you for your kind support, we couldn't do it without you."

Simon O'Leary Assistant Director of Fundraising, Poppy Appeal

We will have poppies for sale in church or by request from Eleanor

Contact 0115 956 1385

Alternatively if you would like to donate to the Poppy Appeal directly this can be done via their website www.britishlegion.org.co.uk and follow the poppy appeal donate links.

Notification of All Hallows APCM

In normal times the APCM would have taken place in April, but it was postponed for obvious reasons.

The APCM has been rescheduled for:

Tuesday 27th October at 7pm in church

Numbers are limited to 40 due to current regulation so come early to avoid disappointment!

Anyone wishing to become a member of the PCC please speak to Dorothy Ritchie or John Rigby and they can fill a form in for you. We are looking for five new members of the PCC to serve for two and a half terms.

We are also looking for Deanery Synod representatives; we have one nomination so far and have room for two more. There are roughly three meetings a year normally held at different churches in the Deanery.

The 2019 Report will be in circulation along with the Financial Statement.

If you would like a copy of any of the documents, please contact the church office:
0115 9524020

We now have a pre-recorded service available on the telephone. The service (which will be changed weekly) can be reached by dialling:

0115 671 3537

(PLEASE NOTE, THE AREA CODE MUST BE DIALLED EVEN FROM A LANDLINE). It is a local rate call. We have set this up for those who do not have access to the Facebook or YouTube services. Any problems with accessing this, please contact Mic.
