Collect for Today

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Prayer after Communion

Loving Father, we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son: sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Please join us for light refreshments following our 9.30 am service

Galatians 5.1,13-25

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Luke 9. 51-62

When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set towards Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, 'Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?' But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village.

As they were going along the road, someone said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' And Jesus said to him, 'Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.' To another he said, 'Follow me.' But he said, 'Lord, first let me go and bury my father.' But Jesus said to him, 'Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.' Another said, 'I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.' Jesus said to him, 'No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

Intercessions from Keith Hollingworth

We offer you prayers for your Church, its clergy and people. As members of Christ's earthly community, remind us that at the heart of our ministry is the force of Baptism, our rebirth in the spirit of love. Whether it is in your sacrament or in our daily witness to the regeneration of our own lives, we pray for constancy in the obedience of your greatest commandment to love and forgive one another

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer

We pray for a world in serious conflict, a world in pain, seemingly cut off from your renewing love by its obstinacy and folly, in the lust for power. Hold above the heads of all Your people the waters of Baptism, the streams of living water, poised to flow, by Your guidance, but are often repudiated by human arrogance and conceit. As mankind increasingly drives itself towards a dismal possible apocalyptic end, ignoring its creators will, to cleanse, we ask you to regenerate, and redeem us all. Make us aware of our peril, Lord, that in the spirit of contrition we may be saved.

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer

We pray for our community and its life, for our homes and schools. We are reminded that it is primary through the local community that we as individuals can exert an influence upon the quality of life to which we aspire. It is in the community structure that our witness to the principles of Christ love can be most keenly felt. Help us, Lord, that by your example, the power of our Lord may be born anew in the spirit of fairness and compassion for all its citizens.

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer.

We offer prayers for those in need, the sick, the poor, and especially those without our true faith to sustain them. Teach us, Lord, that those who suffer, require an extra portion of our concern and compassion, a concentrated participation in that new life of spiritual power into which we are all baptised. Lord, make us generous in sharing those spiritual gifts which you offer us, especially today, as we say a fond farewell to our Revd Mic Johnson. May you grant him the peace, love and harmony he deserves as he commences a new chapter of life. We thank you for his teachings and leadership, knowing that he leaves All Hallows Gedling, a better place for his presence and Ministry

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer

We remember those who have departed this life and are now baptised in the glory of resurrection. Having shared with Christ the death of the body, they are now raised with him into life of the spirit. Make us worthy, that when the time comes for us to leave this world, we too may find our way into the eternal light of paradise.

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer.

In this very special year, we pray for our Sovereign Queen Elizabeth, the head of our Church and Nation, as we have with Christian teachings celebrated Her Majesty's marvellous seventy years as a ruler of the tremendous nation, with gratitude and thanksgiving. Grant unto her whole Council, and all that are put in authority under her, that ability to truly and impartially minister justice, and maintain a true Christian religion in her Governance.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of all your saints, we commend ourselves and all Christian people to your unfailing love.

Merciful father these prayers for the sake of your son our saviour Jesus Christ.
