Everlasting God,
you have ordained and constituted the ministries of angels and mortals in a wonderful order: grant that as your holy angels always serve you in heaven, so, at your command, they may help
and defend us on earth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God,
now and for ever. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Lord of heaven, in this Eucharist you have brought us near to an innumerable company of angels and to the spirits of the saints made perfect: as in this food of our earthly pilgrimage we have shared their fellowship, so may we come to share their joy in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please join us for light refreshments following our 9.30 am service

James 3.1-12

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits.

How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

Mark 8. 27-38

Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that I am?' And they answered him, 'John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.' He asked them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Peter answered him, 'You are the Messiah.' And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, 'Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.'

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.'

Intercessions from Keith Hollingworth

We pray for your Church, the living body of Christ summoned to love the world, to be its neighbour in compassion and faith, and to inspire neighbourliness in others. Strengthen your Church in its task of bringing love to the world, that the covenant which you have established with your creation may endure and flourish.
Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer

We offer you a world in which nations live close together, many of them with long common borders. Yet, whereas close proximity should breed good neighbours and inspire mutual concern, instead it often plants the seeds of mutual suspicion and fear, producing the poisonous blossoms of conflict and war. Lord, create between cultures and nations a spirit of mutual love, tolerance and forces which will generate peaceful and healthy relationships.
Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for our village with its rich diversity of relationships. We pray especially for those neighbours in which relationships are poisoned by distrust and prejudice. Help us Lord to be reminded that productive and harmonious neighbourhoods are the key to a vital and vigorous community, that families united by the spirit of love and charity are the foundation of communal prosperity.
Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for those who are in need, those cut off from the mainstream of society and in need of love and acceptance. Lord, help us to be good neighbours to those who are alone, those in whom alienation has created despair and despondency.
Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We celebrate the memory of those who have died, those who now know the perfect love and peace of your kingdom. Ever the perfect neighbour, you accept in love the whole of your creation, offering to them an eternal share in your resurrected life. May we accept your offer by responding to your love and putting you at the centre of our lives.
Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Dear Lord our Father
Please give the strength and courage to the volunteers and designated leaders for our Messy Church. Assist them all in their undertaking. Grant that there is sufficient support of both leaders and children to make this venture a viable and sustainable commitment for All Hallows Church
Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer

Importantly and relevantly, we pray for our Sovereign Queen Elizabeth, the head of our Church and Nation, that through her we may be godly and quietly governed. Grant unto her whole Council, and all that are put in authority under her, that ability to truly, and impartially, minister justice, and maintain a true Christian faith in her Governance, and that they impart the one true religion of this Country.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of all your saints, we commend ourselves and all Christian people to your unfailing love.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers, for the sake of your dear Son, our Father, Jesus Christ

GARDEN SALE AND BOILER FUND

Many thanks to those who attended the Garden Sale at the week end. We raised a further £280 towards the boiler project plus £150 in memory of Janet Kenwood and we have received a generous donation of £500 towards the fund. We are now close to our target but still need to raise another £2,500 to meet the bill of £24,000. Although the boilers are being fitted in the week ready for colder weather, we have had to borrow funds from other maintenance projects so any donations are very welcome.

Thank you Eleanor.

HARVEST FESTIVAL October 3rd

You are invited to bring donations of goods for Framework. Gifts of tinned foods; dried goods; toiletries; cleaning materials; in fact anything non-perishable that a person might need for setting up a home.
