Job 23 1-9,16-17

Then Job answered: 'Today also my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy despite my groaning. O that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his dwelling! I would lay my case before him, and fill my mouth with arguments. I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me. Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; but he would give heed to me. There an upright person could reason with him, and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge.

'If I go forward, he is not there; or backward, I cannot perceive him; on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him; I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.

God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me; If only I could vanish in darkness, and thick darkness would cover my face!

Mark 10. 17-31

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother." ' He said to him, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!' And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?' Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.'

Peter began to say to him, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

Intercessions from Joan Langridge

Lord, we thank you for the love and community of your church, here and throughout the world. Please give Mic and the team the skill and patience to continue their dedicated leadership. Bless the Bishops, archbishops and Queen Elizabeth as head of our church.
Lord in your mercy, - Hear our prayer

Father, in a changing world beset by floods, fires, droughts and earthquakes, attributed to global warming, give the scientists the ideas and the politicians the will to find solutions.
Lord in your mercy, - Hear our prayer

Lord, we thank you for the caring community in which we live. Give wise counsel to our leaders as we gradually return to pre COVID social activities. Keep us safe from restarting the spread of the virus.
Lord in your mercy, Hear our prayer

Father give care to those who are ill. Support them though their infirmities of body, mind and spirit. Ease the suffering of them and their loved ones and if it be your will, return them to full health.

We pray especially for those on our pew leaflet, Kate Lincoln, Penny Greenwood, Annmarie Lamb, Mike Richards.

Lord in your mercy, - Hear our prayer

Father, many of us have lost family or friends during this pandemic, in sometimes lonely and difficult circumstances, from the virus or other conditions. Please take them to their heavenly home in the knowledge of our love for them and trust in you, and comfort those they leave behind.

We remember especially June Hancock, Robert White, Joyce Littlewood and Mabel Bower who died recently Merciful Father, - accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ, Amen.
